

Vanguard Learning Trust

Student Voice Inclusion Project Autumn 2025

Purpose

- The VLT vision is to provide outstanding, inclusive education.
- The VLT values are aspiration, community, equity. What do these mean?
- Project: Create a Trust-wide mural on inclusion
- Students will share their words and images about inclusion

What You Can Submit

- Written work: poem, paragraph, statement, or call for action
- Image: photo, drawing, sketch, or painting
- You may submit one or both types

Guidance

- Entries must be authentic and created by you
- Do not copy from the internet or use AI-generated work
- Show your own perspective and creativity

The Inclusion Mural

- The best entries from Oak Farm will receive a prize from Mrs Hunt.
- Selected entries will feature in the Trust-wide mural
- Contributes points to the VLT Cup competition
- Other awards may be announced
- Special leadership from Kadeena Cox, Paralympic gold medallist

Get Involved!

- Think about: What does inclusion mean in your school?
- Share your voice through words or art
- Help shape the mural that represents all of us

You can hand something in on paper to Mrs Hunt or you can email something you make electronically to your year group email – your teacher will forward your creation to Mrs Hunt.
